

Complaints Procedure

At Acenden we do everything we can to make sure the customers we service for and on behalf of our clients get the best possible service. However, sometimes, we don't get things right first time. If you're not completely happy with our service, we'd like to hear about it, that way we can do something to put it right. You can tell us about your concerns by contacting us in the following ways:

In writing:

If you wish to make a complaint by telephone you should initially contact the relevant department directly by calling either:

Our office opening times are 9:00am - 5:30pm, Monday to Friday.

If they are unable to resolve your complaint immediately, it will be referred to our Complaints Team for further investigation.

Our procedure

We will endeavour to resolve your complaint immediately. Failing that, we will always aim to resolve your complaint within three business days of receipt and, if we are able to resolve your complaint, a letter (called a 'summary resolution communication') will be issued to you confirming the resolution.

If we cannot resolve your complaint within three business days of receipt a written acknowledgement will be sent as soon as practical.

Your complaint will then be reviewed by a complaints handling specialist whose responsibility is to investigate and resolve any problems that you are experiencing.

A Final Response will be sent to you within 8 weeks of the receipt of your complaint, which will include a full explanation of our findings. We hope to resolve your complaint to your satisfaction without reference to a third party. However, if you are not satisfied with our Final Response, or you have not received a Final Response from us after 8 weeks have passed since you first contacted us, you may refer your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service.
